FOOTBALL TAKES ACADEMIC INCENTIVE TRIP

On December 30th members of the Lancer Football program took an Academic Incentive Trip to the Pro Football Hall of Fame over the Holiday Break. Football players in grades 8-12 who played football for the Lancers in the Fall of 2021 and had a GPA over a 3.0 during the 1st grading period were provided a paid ticket and transportation to Canton, Ohio.

Eighteen players (10 High School & 8 Middle School) spent two and half hours touring the Hall of Fame. Players also had lunch at the Hall of Fame Café and visited the Hall of Fame Shop.

The incentive trips are part of Coach Lee's C.H.A.M.P. (Continually Helping Athletes Make Progress) program to support Academic Assistance and Achievement. The next incentive trip will occur during Spring Break this year.

CLAIM THE CHAIN OFF-SEASON INCENTIVE

For the 2022 Off-Season Lakewood Football Players will be competing with a teammate to "Claim the Chain" weekly.

Each week, the Live School App randomly selects players to pair up as a teammate to compete in daily team competitions. Teams will be ranked and will earn points for top 3 places. At the end of the Week, team points will be added & the team with highest total of points will "Claim the Chain".

Two chains have been purchased for the weightroom. The chain is silver with a script Lancer Logo that can be worn by the players.

Players keep the chain for a week before returning it to the weightroom.

BLACK COLLEGE HALL OF FAME HISTORY

In Honor of the Celebration of the Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday this month, and our recent visit to the Football Hall of Fame, we take a look at the Black College Football Hall of Fame located in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The BCFHOF was founded in 2009 by two legendary NFL quarterbacks and African American pioneers, James Harris and Doug Williams. There have been 96 Inductees since inception, including Mel Blount, James Harris, Willie Lanier, Art Shell and Doug Williams, who serve as Trustees. Under their leadership, the BCFHOF has continued to grow, providing a meaningful platform to share the history and stories of the greatest HBCU football players, coaches and contributors.

The Black College Football Hall of Fame (BCFHOF) has a permanent home at the Pro Football Hall of Fame (PFHOF) to tell its story. 34 members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, nearly 10% of the players enshrined in Canton, attended an HBCU. All but two (Len Ford and Marion Motley who briefly attended an HBCU before transferring to another college) are also members of the Black College Football Hall of Fame.

Many Programs and events are annual part of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. This includes: hosting future annual BCFHOF induction ceremonies at Johnson Controls Hall of Fame Village; expanded educational programming and special events at the PFHOF during Black History Month; a traveling exhibition; and post-graduate internship opportunities for graduates of HBCUs.

The partnership also includes the BCFHOF Classic held at Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium, and a major exhibition inside the PFHOF.
